

Mrs. Lucy Smith, 91, Dies at Rockville

Mrs. Lucy Scott Smith, 91, mother of Harold C. Smith, former Montgomery County Police Court judge, died this morning at her home, 108 Forest avenue, Rockville.

Mrs. Smith, the former Lucy Scott Black, was born in New Orleans and attended private schools there. Her father, William C. Black, was president of the Cotton Exchange there.

She married Edwin Smith, an astronomer with the Coast and Geodetic Survey and they moved to Rockville in 1890. He died in 1912.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the Rockville Presbyterian Church. She also belonged to the Rockville Inquiry Club and Women's Christian Temperance Union.

One of her sons, Theron Smith, a member of the Medical Corps, was killed during World War I.

Besides Judge Smith, she is survived by three other sons, Edwin Smith III, West Orange, N. J.; Ralph S. Smith, Chester, N. J.; and Duncan C. Smith, Dover, N. J.; a daughter, Miss Lucy N. Smith of Rockville; 13 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Lucy Smith Obit 1949

Clipped By:

chrisreed97

Wed, Nov 8, 2023